

About In These Words

Brief Introduction on In These Words and the Timeline of Its Prequels, Main Story and Extras

"In These Words" is a crime-suspense yaoi story created and written by Kichiku Neko, and made into manga by the artist, Jo Chen.

"In This Words" is divided into prequels, main story, extras and others. The timeline of the prequels takes place before the main story; it tells the story of how Asano Katsuya, when he lived in New York, worked in NYPD and became involved with Homicide Detective David Krause.

The main story focuses on Shinohara Kenji and Asano Katsuya, after Katsuya returned from USA to Japan. There, he was asked to be a consultant with Tokyo Police Department for an on-going serial killing case. The story also focuses on Asano and Shinohara's budding relationship.

Other than "In These Words", Guilt|Pleasure also published other creative works like novellas and novellas with illustrations, and is gradually expanding and linking every single story into same or parallel universes. For instance, "Cruel to be Kind" and its Sequel "Icarus Syndrome" occurred before the "In These Words" timeline as a young Shinohara Kenji was introduced in the novel. "The Bride"'s sequel "The Human Stain" has a Private Detective David Krause as a protagonist.
